

CORRELATION OF USE MARKING AND PRODUCT IDENTITY TEXT FOR NEW LISTING MARKS

It is required that the use marking and product identity described below is employed on each model by December 31, 2008.

The following table correlates the new required use marking with the product identity (Listing Mark text) of the previous Listing Mark. Please refer to the Listing Mark section shown below this table for information to assist in the use of this table. If more than one product identity was previously applicable, the new use marking texts shall be combined (See below for examples).

CCN	Product Identity Included in Former Label Text	New Product Identity for New Label Text	New Required Use Marking
JKIS	"Residential Gas Detector"	"Emergency Signaling Equipment" or "Emergency Signaling Subassembly"	"Residential Gas Detector"
JKIS	"Recreational Vehicle Gas Detector"	"Emergency Signaling Equipment" or "Emergency Signaling Subassembly"	"Recreational Vehicle Gas Detector"
